JUST THE FACTS

- Inositol (as myo and D-chiro) – Naturally found in the human body and in a variety of fruits, grains, and beans. Inositol is a compound that serves to support hormone balance, including normal insulin function.* The two most relevant forms of inositol, myo-inositol and D-chiro inositol, are uniquely combined in this formula to support normal blood glucose and insulin metabolism, which helps support radiant skin.*
- Alpha-lipoic acid – A compound that may promote overall metabolism and may support healthy-looking skin.* Promotes healthy carbohydrate and fat metabolism and supports antioxidant status.*
